Play School

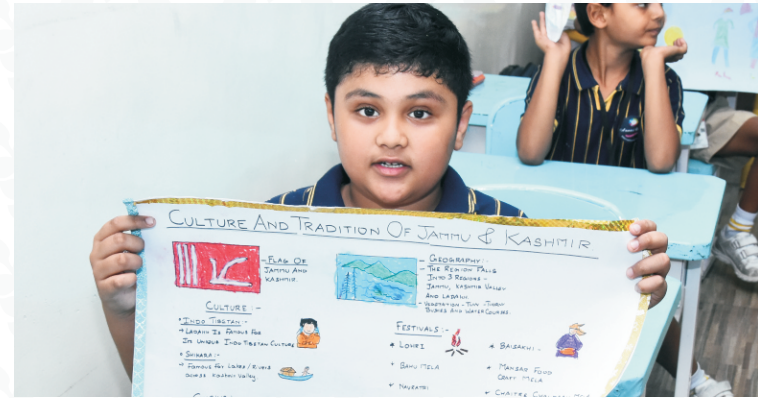

A well-resourced playschool for children who have completed 2 years of age, with the latest play equipments, indoor and outdoor play areas. Well-trained staff with love and compassion, give individual attention to the safety and well-being of the tiny-toys and groom them through the play-way (Montessori) method of learning. The curriculum is specially designed to captivate the young minds, with a variety of actions songs, rhymes, scrap book work, clay modeling and nature walk. (Timings: 9.00 am. to 12.00 noon).

Daily Report & SMS Alerts

For clarity of communication, a Daily Report Register is maintained by the class Teachers. This keeps tab of the student's regularity of school, completion of assignments, bringing the materials etc. A parent gets a clear picture of their ward's academic and behavioural performance, through the sms alerts from the school.

100th Day

The 100th Day celebration is a unique facet of the Violet School. The number 100 denotes fullness or completeness - a 100 runs in cricket, 100 years, 100 marks and so on... the 100th Day of the Academic year is the day marked for showcasing the talent and potential of the Child. Children are encouraged to recite 100 couplets from Thirukural, 100 Scientists, 100 Countries and capitals, to do 100 jumps on a skipping rope, or to make 100 articles from waste products etc.

Field Trips

I hear I forget

I see I remember

Field trips are an integral parts of learning. Children are taken to various places such as industries, factories, libraries, super-market, museum, zoo, parks, petrol bunk, post office, aquarium and religious places. The children are to submit a “Report” of their Educational Field Trip, and thus they are trained in observation, recording of details and presentation. Talks and group discussions are also initiated in the class, to guide them into further research and scientific approach of problem solving.

Culturals

The Children's Day every year brings the much awaited Intra-house cultural. Talent Search is on as the School senate organizes the events such as Handwriting, Essay-Writing, Drawing & Painting, Solo-Singing, Dancing, Quiz, Dumb Charades, ADZAP, Shipwreck, One minute to fame, Rangoli, Wealth from waste, Bouquet making and so on.

Inter School KHO-KHO Tournament

Violets boast of Volley ball and Kho-Kho courts, a spacious ground and a trendy cricket pitch. Violetans are given coaching for Athletics, Kho-Kho, Volley ball and cricket. The Violet Interschool Kho-Kho tournament will be hosted and organized by the School and the Violet Trophy goes for the School with the maximum winners.

Traditional Games Day

To instill into the minds of young India, the glories and richness of our tradition and culture, the Traditional games day is celebrated once in two years. Ancient games like gilli, goli, paandi, kallanga, pallankuzhi, uriadi, pambaram and silambam are revived and they get a face-lift on this day.

“Better Nations can be built by better citizens
For which Education is the foundation”

Community Outreach and Value Education

Following the footsteps of the founder, the Violetans are sensitised to the need of the community. They are encouraged to involve themselves in social service activities and community developments programmes. "Save Water", "Go Green", "Ban Plastics", "Keep your streets clean and green" are some of the messages they took to the public by means of Awareness Walks, Campaigns and Exhibitions. Values such as sharing and caring are best learnt by the visits to orphanages and Homes for the Aged. Violet School observes "Day of Giving" and "Day of Sharing" to nurture the values of love and concern towards fellow human beings.

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge". - Proverbs 1:7 (Holy Bible)
